

Every town has a place locals call their own. It is a place where the food is prepared fresh, piled high, and served by a friendly staff.

It is a place where the crab cakes are homemade, the produce is fresh, the chicken is grilled, the fries are covered with chili and cheese, and the hamburgers are hand shaped each morning.

It is a place where the working man gets a hearty meal, and the grandparents can spoil their grandchildren.

It is a place called.....
